

LIBERALS HONOR HOWELL'S MEMORY AND FAY MASON

Gustav Klingenstein, in Speech, Says Mud-Slinging Drove Judge to Suicide.

SPEAKERS RAKE SHERIFF'S OFFICE, FORE AND AFT

Rising Vote of Sympathy Taken for Family of Dead Magistrate.

That Under-Sheriff Charles M. Mason's attacks were responsible for the death of Judge Howell, whose tragic suicide Saturday shocked the community, was the gist of several impassioned speeches delivered before a large crowd in the new Turn Hall in upper William street yesterday afternoon, where the Liberal Citizens' League held one of its most impressive rallies of the season. Before the meeting dispersed the memory of the late judge was honored by a rising vote of sympathy for his bereaved family.

George Herrmann, one of the candidates for the assembly, made a fiery attack upon the under-sheriff and raked his methods fore and aft, while Gustav Klingenstein, of Jersey City, one of the prominent members of the German-American Central Society, was also unsparring in his denunciation of mud-slinging.

After Vice-President Christian Widmann, who presided, had introduced Mr. Herrmann, that speaker first took a fling at Senator Colby. Then he began his attack on the sheriff's office.

"That office," said he, "has wasted the money of the taxpayers during a so-called anti-vice crusade, which only served the purpose of providing a glorious two years of luxury for the sheriff's men."

"Mason's attacks were mean and contemptible, and it is not every man that is strong enough to defy such attacks."

Another speaker was Franz J. Sturm, also on the assembly ticket. He said that the so-called reforms curtailed personal liberty and promised that, if elected, he would do all in his power to secure the passage of liberal laws.

TOMORROW IS THE LAST DAY YOU CAN REGISTER.

Smaller Towns Are Allowed an Additional Week.

Tomorrow is the last day for Newark men to register if they want to vote on election day, Tuesday, November 3. The boards of registry will sit in all election districts in Newark from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 9 o'clock at night.

It is the last day for registration in all cities in New Jersey that have a population of over 30,000. A week from tomorrow will be the last registry day in smaller towns and all country districts.

ARLINGTON WOMAN BRIDE OF HACKENSACK MAN.

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Mrs. Amy Roberts, of Arlington, to Charles Gordon, of Hackensack. The ceremony was performed in Hackensack, October 7. Mrs. Gordon was the widow of Assistant Postmaster Frank B. Roberts, of Arlington, who died about four years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon have taken up their residence in Hackensack.

CANDIDATES TALK IN IRVINGTON.

A large gathering of citizens attended the mass-meeting Saturday night in Masonic Hall under the auspices of the Irvington Republican organization. Colonel Barbour, of Connecticut, who was to have addressed the meeting, was unable to attend, and Colonel Fairless, of Virginia, spoke in his place. Major Wiley, the candidate from the Eighth Congressional District, and Fred L. Baldwin, candidate for County Supervisor, spoke on local issues.

You May Enjoy Your Meals

If You Will But Equip Your Stomach
With The Right Means To Handle The Food.

If you go into a restaurant, cafe or hotel, where all your environments, the lights, dazzling linen, silver, cut glass, music, chatting and laughing women, seem to foretell of a pleasant meal, your stomach should not revolt when you read the menu card.

Heavy steaks, soups, oysters, entrees, salads, etc., should hold no terrors for the healthy stomach and they do not.

A small box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets placed in your vest pocket will be sufficient guard against the mad ravages of a worn-out stomach.

A tablet taken a few moments after a copious meal will remove any ill effects of food from your stomach and you may eat as generously as those about you.

One of these little tablets will of itself settle all questions of indigestion for that meal and will place your stomach and digestive organs in a better condition for the next.

Your blood will be enriched and the depleted gastric fluids will be rebuilt. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are natural, active, digestive agents who give to the gastric juices the elements they lack, which ease the stomach, remove irritation and enrich and stimulate the blood.

All of these statements may be verified if you will take but a little of your time to prove them.

Every drugstore carries Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in stock and will tell you of their merit. These tablets sell for 50c per box, or send us your name and address and we will send you one by mail a trial package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

MRS. HAINS DENIED ALIMONY AND CARE OF HER CHILDREN

Court Holds That Slayer Has No Money to Give His Wife.

AFFIDAVIT IN HUSBAND'S DIVORCE SUIT PUBLISHED

She Accuses T. Jenkins Hains of Prompting Charges in Revenge.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The application of Mrs. Claudia L. Hains, for alimony and counsel fees to defend a suit for divorce, brought by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis, was denied by Justice Carr in Brooklyn today. Mrs. Hains's request that she be granted the custody of her children also was denied. Annis was named as corespondent in Captain Hains's suit for divorce.

Justice Carr in his decision said that Captain Hains has no means from which to pay either alimony or counsel fees, as his salary has been suspended since his imprisonment, and his own small means are needed for his own defense. The court also gave as a reason that Mrs. Hains is in a comfortable home with her parents in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Hains's affidavit in reply to her husband's divorce suit was made public today. In it she declared that when Captain Hains returned from San Francisco to Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook on May 29 last, he accused her of intimacy with William E. Annis, basing his allegation on a letter which Captain Hains said he had received from his brother, T. Jenkins Hains. Mrs. Hains denied the accusation, and at her suggestion Captain Hains invited Annis to their home, after which all three went riding in Annis's automobile. On the following day, Mrs. Hains said, her husband went to call on his father, General P. C. Hains, returned at 2 a. m. on June 1, pulled her out of bed, again accused her, and threatened to shoot her. General Hains called that day, Mrs. Hains asserted, and upon hearing the captain's accusations said he would shoot Annis on sight. Later that day Captain Hains's brother T. J. Hains, called with a lawyer.

At the solicitation of T. Jenkins Hains, Mrs. Hains said, she took a drink of whiskey, and then at her husband's order, signed a paper which was not read to her. This, she believes, was the confession which they say she made.

Mrs. Hains denies that she had been guilty of any impropriety with Mr. Annis, and concluded: "I believe that my husband's act and the charges which he has made against me have been prompted by his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who threatened to injure me for refusing his advances. He endeavored several times while my husband was away to make advances, going so far as to enter my room. I repulsed him and he declared that he would be revenged."

FREIE ZEITUNG RAPPS POLITICAL "MUD-SLINGERS"

Asks if Gravestones Shall Be come Steps to Higher Honors for 'Hypocritical Reformers.'

The following editorial appeared in today's issue of the Freie Zeitung, of this city:

"From mud-slinging to the suicide of the one aimed at is often only a short step. It has been said that political attacks should not be taken so seriously, because during the heat of a campaign not every word is weighed. At the same time one must draw a distinction between political attacks and those indecent direct and indirect personal slanders that not only reflect upon the party attacked, but also upon those that are near and dear, and almost invariably hurt them more than the person directly attacked.

"These attacks are the more galling and infamous when they come from beneath a hypocritical mask of self-righteousness, when they are made under the guise of furthering morality. In other words, when they are really made to enhance the success of a political reform clique. They are the common weapons of all those reformers who frequently have good reason to divert public attention from their own persons and who, wise, know the old tactic that an attack is the best defense. They throw mud at the opposition. . . . During the last three years we have had enough of this in Newark. In churches and in public places, in secret and in the open, an unbearable hypocrisy has made its appearance and has soiled with its poison all that have come in contact with it, and everything opposed to the plans of those that further such methods. It has come so far that even the powers of justice have been evoked in aid of this perverted morality, always, of course, under the pretense of righteousness.

"We have lived as under the reign of terror of the inquisition practically because a handful of fanatics and office-hungry men have used their power in a way that surely was not meant by the voters who elected them. It is not necessary to elucidate this idea any further.

"And the final result of all these monstrous evils, this perversion of the rights of citizens, this shameful hypocrisy, that has now led for a second time to a suicide in the park need surprise no one.

"But shall gravestones become the steps upon which hypocritical reformers mount to higher honors?"

TAFT FLASHES ACROSS STATE ON A RECORD TRIP

that if promises were all that organized labor wanted, the Democratic party should get support.

He then told of the enactment by the Republican party of the employers' liability and other labor reform bills.

Mr. Taft said: "I say to you that the tremendous growth of labor unions, their increased usefulness to their members, their usefulness in society in bringing about peaceful trade agreements are founded on abiding by the law as I laid it down in the Arthur case and in other cases." Concerning the famous Phelan case, Mr. Taft said:

"Mr. Debs, against whom I am running for the presidency, was the head of the American Railway Union. He wanted to keep babies from getting their milk, to prevent people from traveling, to tie up the railroads of the country because Mr. Pullman, in Pullman, Ill., didn't pay his employees what Debs thought he ought to."

He said that he sent for Phelan, who was sent to tie up the railroads. Phelan denied that he violated the laws.

"But the evidence was overwhelming against him," the ex-Ohio federal judge and present presidential nominee declared, "despite his statement that he was inspecting the railway union's charitable institutions."

"Heads were broken and Phelan kept up his activity in bringing about disorder. I gave him a fair trial, covering two weeks, and then sent him to jail, as he richly deserved. I have no apology to make."

TAFT'S COAT TORN BY UNION COUNTY CROWD.

RAHWAY, Oct. 19.—On the train it was discovered that the great crowd at Elizabeth had in its effort to see the candidate torn his coat, ripped new trousers of Colonel Fairless and damaged the secret service chief's clothes.

Several of the Newarkers left the special at Elizabeth, among them Winton C. Garrison. Those who made the trip from Elizabeth included Senator Keen, Governor Fort, who wasn't invited to have a part in the Newark meeting; Colonel Alexander Fordyce and a score of others.

State Chairman Murphy and Secretary E. W. Gray are in charge. Hundreds of school children and families from the surrounding country, with workmen enjoying their lunch hour, greeted the Taft train when it arrived at Rahway at 12:19. Mr. Taft told the crowd to vote the Republican ticket, if the full dinner party was wanted.

The public schools were dismissed at 11:30 to 12:30. Mr. Taft was introduced by ex-Governor Murphy, and spoke less than five minutes. The train left on schedule time. Governor Fort left the train at Rahway.

TAFT DE-LIGHTED WITH RECEPTION IN JERSEY.

NEW-BRUNSWICK, Oct. 19.—To a STAR reporter, after leaving Rahway, Mr. Taft said: "My trip through New Jersey is one of the most inspiring of my campaign. I am delighted with the reception given me as the candidate for President. I feel sure that New Jersey will maintain her place in the Republican column."

State Chairman Murphy said of the trip when he surveyed the great throng at New Brunswick: "This trip of Judge Taft's has certainly been the best thing in the campaign in New Jersey. It has disclosed the interest of the people in his election as nothing else could have done, and makes certainty doubly sure."

The gathering about the stand in George street, near the station, was said to be the greatest in the old city's history. Rutgers College's whole undergraduate body was there, with cheer leaders in charge. The demonstration lasted five minutes before County Committee Chairman Richard H. Wilson could make himself heard.

"I wish one of those Rutgers boys would loan me his voice," said Mr. Taft. He paid tribute to Rutgers as the alma mater of Justice Bradley and the late Vice-President Hobart. Taft's voice was by this time very bad, and all his speeches were interrupted by coughing. The college boys gave him a "Bow-wow-wow" yell and "Good-by, Bill."

"I'd like to make a political speech, but the crowd is so large I couldn't begin to make myself heard," said the nominee in concluding his New Brunswick address. "Then, too, my voice is so bad, you would think I was trying to sing an opera instead of making a speech."

Mr. Taft made the flimsy platform tremble as he mounted it. He was persuaded to step onto a chair. As he made a gesture he almost lost his footing in the smooth chair bottom. His sense of humor never deserts him, and clutching at those about him, he exclaimed in conversational tone: "This is ticklish, but the wicked ever stand in slippery places."

Between New Brunswick and Trenton luncheon was served in Mr. Taft's private car. Those at luncheon were Mr. Taft, former Governor Murphy, Senators Keen and Briggs, Congressman Fowler, Senator William Alden Smith, of Michigan; Dr. J. J. Richardson, of Washington, who constantly treats the nominee's throat, and Colonel D. M. Ramsdell, sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate, who is in general charge of this trip.

TRENTON OUT IN FORCE TO GREET CANDIDATE.

TRENTON, Oct. 19.—At Trenton the party was met by Mercer County Chairman Charles H. Baker and other leaders in automobiles. United States Senator Briggs and William Burgess were on the train. Congressman Ira W. Wood presided at the big meeting in Taylor Opera House.

There was a small crowd at the Trenton station, but it was because every body who could had apparently gone to Taylor Opera House. Thousands were turned away there.

"This cordial reception," said Mr. Taft when he had been presented by Congressman Wood and cheered for

HITCHCOCK TELLS TAFT HERE THAT HE WILL WIN JERSEY

Republican National Chairman
Cheered by Murphy's Prediction of Victory.

GENERAL OUTLOOK FINE, AVERS COMMITTEE HEAD

Undaunted Even by Chief Conway's Statement That State Is "Wicked for Bryan."

"I had a talk with State Chairman Murphy this morning about conditions in New Jersey," said Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, of the Republican National Committee, today to a reporter for THE EVENING STAR, "and it is only a question of how big the majority for Taft will be. There is absolutely no doubt about New Jersey."

Mr. Hitchcock spent the morning with Mr. Murphy and Mr. Taft until the candidate left this city. After the Taft special train pulled out, Mr. Hitchcock remained on the Pennsylvania Railroad platform waiting for a train to New York.

With him was Chairman Alfred N. Dalrymple, of the Republican County Committee, who was a classmate of Mr. Hitchcock in Washington while studying law. At that time Mr. Hitchcock was a clerk in the Department of Agriculture.

The reporter told him what Chief Conway, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, had said about Trenton being "wicked for Bryan."

"If it goes for Bryan it will be wicked," suggested Surgeon George E. Russell, who was with the party. Mr. Hitchcock smiled when he considered the proposition and inquired what the potteries would be likely to do for Taft and the Republican party.

"As I say, and no matter what Mr. Conway says, it is only a question of the size of the majority," said Mr. Hitchcock.

"What basis is there for reports that Ohio may go for Bryan?" was asked. "Well, there are some difficulties there, but the disaffection is only in spots and conditions in those spots have been construed to show conditions through the entire State. I think that Ohio will go with Mr. Taft when the election is held."

Mr. Hitchcock seized the occasion in this city to talk with Mr. Taft of general conditions, and told him that the prospects at the present time, are brighter for his success than they have been at any time since the campaign began.

OUT TO BE JAILED FOR STEALING RIDE ON ERIE.

(Special to the Evening Star.)
PATERSON, Oct. 19.—In suspending sentence on Amos Maguire, who had been caught beating his way to Middletown, N. Y., on the Erie, Recorder Carroll said: "I ought to send you to jail for stealing a ride on the Erie. You may go. Next time ride on the D. L. & W., or you'll never get there."

NEPHEWS WILL BE PALL-BEARERS.

The funeral of George Burgess, who died at his home, 115 Bloomfield avenue, Saturday, will be conducted at his home this evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Pullin, of East Orange, officiating. Interment will take place tomorrow morning in Fairmount Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Mr. Burgess was 66 years old and had been a resident of this city for fifty-two years. Besides his wife, Mrs. Margaret Burgess, two daughters, the Misses Emma and Laura Burgess, and one son, George Burgess, survive. The pall-bearers will be his four nephews, Gustave and Philip Faust, Daniel and Charles Francisco.

TUSCANS' BALL TONIGHT.

The third annual reception and ball of the Tuscan Savings Club will be held this evening at Doege's Hall, Morris avenue. Habersham's Orchestra has been engaged. The officers of the club are: John J. Walsh, president; Joseph Gaylord, vice-president; Frederick Summers, recording secretary; Frank Roche, financial secretary; Robert Strong, treasurer, and G. Conlon, sergeant-at-arms.

HELD FOR BEATING WOMAN.

On a charge of assault and battery, Thomas Samanski, of 38 Jackson street, is being held in $100 bail to await the action of the grand jury. The complainant is Mary Koglosky, also of 38 Jackson street.

Several minutes, "this magnificent reception inspires me to believe that New Jersey is all right. You know a good thing when you see it."

The nominee spoke with great effort and his voice was so husky that he could not be heard distinctly in the upper galleries.

The great audience crowding every inch of floor space, was full of enthusiasm and applauded on slight provocation.

"I haven't the voice, I haven't the strength to make a political speech," said the big nominee, but he gave a pretty good imitation despite his statement of inability. He made much the same tariff speech as at Newark.

In discussing his views on the difference between a Democratic and a Republican panic, Mr. Taft asked, "How shall we restore confidence now?"

"By the election of Taft," shouted a man in the second row from the stage.

"You go to the head of the class," the nominee called back, pointing to the man who had "buttered" in.

The Presidential aspirant eulogized Roosevelt in his Trenton speech after reviewing the present administration, he said:

"So that it's not too much to say that not in the history of the world has any monarch, as President or national leader, done as much for the peace of the world as this same Theodore Roosevelt, whom Mr. Bryan had pictured as a militant dictator with a chip on his shoulder."
